

keep better to deaf service happy customers and reduce long waiting.help deaf who poorly as such english communication to prevent misunderstanding that require professional interpreters who have certification asl and english sign languages both important less embarrassment.